

Dear Classmates and Friends,

It's hard to believe that 25 years have passed since our own Commencement. Yet here we are gathered once again in Harvard Yard. Welcome back to Cambridge!

Our sincere thanks to the members of the reunion committee, who have prepared a spectacular program for you. They are listed on page 2 and will also be wearing identifying name badges. And special thanks to Kristen DeAmicis of the Harvard Alumni Association, whose enthusiasm and support enabled many of our ambitions and provided reality checks for others.

The reunion program tries to balance intellectual stimulation, emotional connection, and fun. We hope you will feel engaged, challenged, reconnected, and truly at home. Over the next few days we'll have the opportunity to hear from members of the faculty and administration and from our own classmates who have generously volunteered their time to share their life experiences. We'll reconnect with various affinity groups, experience a police motorcade to the Pops in true 25th style, do yoga in the Yard, and celebrate Commencement with this year's graduates. There really is something for everyone. Despite the full schedule of events, though, we've tried to leave ample free time throughout the program so you can catch up with old friends and make new memories.

Please make an effort along the way to thank the student coordinators and those who will assist us as bellhops, bartenders, van drivers, etc. They all are here to help—just ask if you need assistance.

We're very glad you're here and wish you a wonderful reunion experience.

All the best,

Jody Buonanno Shue
April Osborg Edrington

Guests are welcome to join alumni for the Afternoon Program. Only members of the Class of 1991 are eligible for Commencement tickets picked up at headquarters during Reunion.

TRANSPORTATION

The influx of family members and guests for Commencement activities makes the campus particularly lively during this time. Mobility in the Yard tends to be constrained. Therefore, attendees are asked to use the reunion shuttle service and bellhops to minimize disruptions to all those enjoying the campus at this busy time.

To view an interactive map of campus locations, please visit map.harvard.edu.

DISABILITIES AND CERTAIN MEDICAL CONDITIONS

Harvard University encourages persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. Accessible parking for reunion guests is available at the 10 Everett Street Garage on a first-come, first-served basis. Please utilize the designated accessible spaces and display your state-issued disabled parking placard, if available. On Commencement Day, University Disability Services provides wheelchair assistance from the Johnston and Meyer Gates to the guest's seat in Tercentenary Theatre. Additional accessibility-related information can be found at accessibility.harvard.edu/commencement. If you have further questions or to request disability accommodations, please call the College Alumni Programs office at 617-496-7001.

MEDICAL SERVICES

The clinic is open from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. each day throughout reunion week. ## SECURITY

The Harvard University Police Department (HUPD) is an important resource if you are lost, locked out of your building, or in need of help of any kind, and should be the first contact for any on-campus incidents. HUPD can be reached with any of the blue-lit emergency telephones in Harvard buildings and in public areas, or by calling 617-495-1212. If you are staying in University housing, ask your bellhop to point out the nearest emergency telephone when you are escorted to your room. Your registration packet includes a room key for access to your room and an electronic access card for access to the building. You should lock your room at all times.

LOST AND FOUND

If you lose or find something, notify the staff at headquarters as soon as possible. Lost items will be kept at headquarters until Sunday, May 29. ## LIABILITY FOR INJURY OR LOSS

Every reasonable precaution is being taken for your safety. At the same time, no individual or committee can or does assume any liability for injury to any person or for loss of, or damage to, property at any time or place during Reunion. ## ACCOMMODATIONS

UNIVERSITY HOUSING

We hope you will be comfortable in the room to which you have been assigned. Upon arrival, you should find your room tidy, with beds made and fresh towels on hand, as well as soap, a bath mat, water glasses, trash bags, and some essential furniture. Upon check-in, you will receive a complimentary reunion blanket for your stay, which you should feel free to take home with you. Please inform a bellhop or headquarters staff about any concerns regarding your accommodations.

Your registration package includes a room key for access to your room and an electronic access card for access to the building for each member of your party. Please keep keys and access cards with you. For security purposes, you should lock your room at all times. Note that in some of the Houses, doors may not lock automatically and must be locked with a key; please be sure to check your doors on the way out.

Barring extenuating circumstances, room changes cannot be accommodated during Reunion. Please keep in mind that almost all beds on campus are in use during Reunion. If there are empty beds in your suite that are not assigned to you, you are not permitted to use them or invite others to do so.
